The opposition to the present admirable city police force has not yet been able to put out a ticket pledged to restore the old order of things. The party lash is being applied to the Republican candidates for county offices to induce them to sacrifice themselves but none of them seem disposed to set themselves up to be knocked down on the eve of a county election. The better class of Republicans are in favor of the Citizens' ticket and refuse to let party lines be drawn in the interest of a gang the people have already had enough of. The Citizens' ticket will undoubtedly be elected by a decisive majority ever any ticket of office seekers or other individuals who may be put out against it. It would much better for the peace and quietude of the city if these wouldbe sgitators would alandon their intentions and reserve their work and enthusiasm for some occasion when they would have a better prospect for success.
